

The Sunday's Children's Time Question!!

Rev. Graeme Reveals All...

So what did you think was the best thing to do? What would Jesus want me to do?

Tell the teacher I saw Andrew take her paper off of her desk?

Tell Andrew he should tell the teacher himself?

Don't say anything to anyone?

Maybe something else?

Sometimes it's hard to know what's best to do or even what God wants us to do. Sometimes we have to just try.

So what happened?

It happened just before recess. So when it was recess I went to the teacher after the other kids were gone. I told her I saw someone else take her paper. She asked me who it was. I looked at Andrew's desk and told her I didn't want the other kids to hate me. She said it was okay and she went and told John he could go out and play.

After recess we all came in and the teacher said in front of everyone that she had found her paper and it wasn't in John's desk. She said if the real person came and said he did it she wouldn't scold him. But if not then she would figure out who it was and she would get mad.

I found out later that Andrew went and told her. That was good because the teacher had seen me look at his desk and went and looked in it. That's how she found the paper and that's how she knew where it was. And Andrew never knew I had said anything.

I only wish I had been brave enough to tell her it was Andrew, even if he got mad. Maybe you have been this brave before.

God bless you, and thanks for looking here today! J
